Albany on the charge of assaulting Express Messenger Thomas W. Wallace, of the Montreal Express, near this city, yesterday with the intention of robbing the express safe, were arraigned in police court there to-day.

The men, through counsel, pleaded not guilty and the case was adjourned till Nov. 5. Both were admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000, the charge being assault in the second degree with an attempt to commit a felony.

Developments to-day indicate that the attack was the result of a personal quarrel between Wallace and Avery, and the defense will attempt to show this at the hearing.
